BEAUTY HEROES

Update your look-hot routine with these fab new finds

Tweezers with heart

Maintaining brows in between appointments can be annoyingly mundane, but our five-minute self-plucking sesh just got a whole lot perkier with these cute heart tweezers from the Shavata brow product line. They come in red, pink, white, teal and black - we want them all, please!

Fresh faced

Refresh and reinvigorate your skin with Colbert MD's Intensify Facial Discs. Their magic weapon is bromelain, a pineapple enzyme that exfoliates and dissolves damaged skin cells to revive dull, tired skin. A must-do beauty ritual after a long or busy week.

● £52 for 20 discs, uk.spacenk.com

Nourished nails

Swap the chipped and stained look for a clean, natural and super-healthy nail treatment, courtesy of Nails Inc NailKale Superfood Base Coat. The longer you can last without colour on your nails the better, but for those who can't, remember to apply this base coat first for nourishing protection.

All-over oil

Skin and hair can never be too well cared for during the cold months, but it can be a hassle using multiple products, too. Thank goodness, then, for Darphin's Revitalising Oil - a blend of four essential oils and nine precious plant oils that adapt to the needs of your face, body and hair. It's a winter make-up bag essential.

● £24 for 50ml, darphin.co.uk

Buttery soft skin

Cold months call for thicker creams, but it can be difficult to find one that's also non-greasy, long-lasting, deliciously fragranced and affordable. So listen up! For All My Eternity's Body Butter comes in two flavours - Sweet Satsuma and Exotic Coconut - which both contain shea butter and almond oil to achieve soft and supple skin. They smell gorgeous, too!
