

Editors' Picks For Best Beauty Products: May 2017

by Andrea Navarro | May 1, 2017

Here at RZHQ, we love trying new beauty products—and it's not lost on us that we're lucky to have access to the latest and greatest from tried-and-true brands, as well as from emerging lines. But what good would it be if we kept our of-the-moment faves to ourselves? Each month, we share our current obsessions in hopes that you'll love them just as much as we do. Ahead, our top picks for May.

Our Favorites This Month

"I'm addicted to this lightweight hydrating gel. It's so gentle on my sensitive skin, and the antioxidant-rich formula is made with hyaluronic acid, tea extracts and lavender that help protect against environmental stressors. It also helps that the lavender scent is incredibly delicious and so calming."
